

CSQS PROTECTS YOUR BUSINESS

Occupational Health and Safety Consultants

Provides OSHA Expertise

When OSHA guidelines seem to be changing daily, CSQS monitors them for you and provides you with the latest updates to keep your business compliant.

Whether it be COVID-19 specific or anything else, we stay on top of it for you.

Mandatory OSHA Training

It's not easy to maintain annual training on 16 different topics. Let CSQS take on this task and help you with documentation for these trainings, with our bi-lingual, certified OSHA trainers on staff.

Provides Peace of Mind

CSQS is only a phone call away when OSHA shows up on a job site, when you need assistance investigating an accident or professional witness services. We are very thorough, professional and strive to make sure you and your business are protected.
